Illinois Japan Bowl®

National Competition for Japanese Language and Japanese Culture for High School Students

The First-Ever Japan Bowl is coming to Illinois on March 7, 2015 at North Central College!

Date: Saturday, March 7, 2015

Time: 9:00-4:30 PM (tentative)

Venue: North Central College, 30 N. Brainard Street, Naperville, Illinois 60540

Fee: Free Admission Team Competition (each team has 3 members) Students must be in Level 3 Japanese. No more than 5 teams per school.

Application deadline is February 6, 2015

This academic competition covers a wide range of topics that tests high school students who are studying the Japanese language across the state of Illinois. The competition tests not only their knowledge of the language, but also their understanding of traditional and modern Japan.

The participants make a team of 3 members and the champion team goes to compete in the National Bowl in Washington, D.C.

Originating in 1993, over 200 students from over 30 high schools across the U.S. participate in the National Japan Bowl.
