

2016 MEXT Japanese Studies Scholarship

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (Consulate-General of Japan in Chicago)

1.) What is the MEXT Japanese Studies Scholarship?

The Ministry of Education, Culture Sports, Science, and Technology (MEXT; Monbukagakusho) Japanese Studies Scholarship is a Japanese government scholarship that allows currently enrolled undergraduates to spend 1 year studying Japanese language and culture at a university in Japan. Scholarship recipients will pursue one of two programs: 1) An intense program to improve Japanese language skills, or 2) An intense program to learn more about Japan and Japanese culture.

2.) What are the benefits?

MEXT will provide roundtrip airfare to Japan, full tuition and any university entrance fees, along with a monthly stipend of ¥117,000. An additional ¥2,000 - ¥3,000 monthly stipend may be provided to those students studying in designated regions. (As of 2015 Japanese fiscal year; the amount of stipend is subject to change). Please see Guideline #3 for more information.

3.) Who is eligible to apply?

To apply through the Consulate-General of Japan in Chicago, applicants must be:

- (1) A United States citizen.
- (2) In general, born between April 2, 1986, and April 1, 1998.
- (3) Currently enrolled as an undergraduate at a four-year, accredited university in the United States, and be a major in a field related to Japanese language or culture (such as Japanese Language, Japanese Literature, Japanese Studies, etc). Applicants must be currently enrolled undergraduates both when they apply for the scholarship, during the scholarship, and after the scholarship is over. In other words, applicants must not graduate from their American university while on the scholarship. Please note that on the application, when you enter your expected graduation date, it should be your expected graduation date you would have if you spent a year in Japan as a Japanese Studies Scholar. In other words, if accepting the MEXT Scholarship would delay your US college graduation date, please list the delayed graduation date on the application.
- (4) Have sufficient Japanese language ability to receive an education, in Japanese, at a Japanese university.

(5) A resident of a state in the Chicago Consulate's 10-state Midwest jurisdiction [Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota, Wisconsin]. Please see Guideline #1 for more information.

4.) I am not U.S. citizen/ resident of a state in the Chicago Consulate's 10-state jurisdiction?
Can I still apply?

You can still apply for the MEXT Scholarship, but you will need to do so through the Japanese diplomatic mission responsible for your country/area. To find your nearest Embassy/Consulate General/Consulate Office, please see this link:
http://www.mofa.go.jp/about/emb\_cons/mofaserv.html

5.) Can I use this scholarship to fund my college's study abroad program in Japan?

Not really. While it may be possible to gain admittance as a MEXT Japanese Studies Scholar to the same Japanese university that your university has an exchange program with, you would attend that university under the auspices, requirements, and timelines of the MEXT Japanese Studies Scholarship and NOT your university's exchange program. If you do receive the scholarship, you may also be placed at a different university. We recommend against attempting to use the MEXT Japanese Studies Scholarship as a way to fund a preexisting university study abroad program. In those cases, we recommend investigating the JASSO Student Exchange Support Program instead:
http://www.jasso.go.jp/scholarship/short\_term\_e.html

6.) Will I receive credit at my U.S. college for courses I take in Japan on the scholarship?

That depends on your U.S. college. Since your college likely does not have a preexisting relationship with the Japanese university at which you study under the MEXT Scholarship, you may need to take extra steps to have the courses counted. Please note that some U.S. colleges may not give any credit for courses taken as a MEXT Japanese Studies Scholar. We encourage all applicants to discuss the matter with their academic advisor.

7.) What is the application timeline?

Applications are currently available on our MEXT website. They are due on Friday, February 26th, 2016. Those selected for an interview will sit for an in-person interview and Japanese Language Exam on Monday, March 14th (tentative) at the Consulate. Those recommended by the Consulate will then await final acceptance from Tokyo and placement at a Japanese university. This should come in June.

Those who are selected to receive the scholarship will depart for their university in Japan in September 2016.
