

ROAD OF LIGHT AND HOPE

National Treasures of Todai-ji Temple, Nara / Photographs by Miro Ito

Commemorating the 120-year History of the Consulate General of Japan in Chicago

Presented by Media Art League and Japan Camera Industry Institute

Hosted by the Consulate-General of Japan in Chicago

Photo: Virūpākṣa, Zōjōten (one of the Four Guardian Kings), Kaidan-do Hall, 8th Century

Photographed with the special permission of Todai-ji, Japan 41 Photo art hanging scrolls portraying ancient National Treasures of Japan and Important Cultural Properties of Japan

Duration: Wed. November 1st - Tue. November 28th 2017

Venue: JIC Hall, Consulate-General of Japan in Chicago

737 N. Michigan Ave. Suite 1000, Chicago, IL 60611

<http://www.chicago.us.emb-japan.go.jp>

Opening Hours: Mon., Tue., Thur., Fri. 9:15 - 17:00 / Wed. 9:15 - 18:00

Weekend Opening Hours: November 4th, 5th, 18th, 19th / 10:00 - 16:00

(Except the above designated days, closed on weekends & statutory holidays including November 10th, 23rd, 24th)

Special Opening Event: Gigaku + Ballet Performance by Japanese Dancer, Shunso; Introduction by Miro Ito with Short Movie Screenings: "Great Buddha Lives!" +
"Gigaku - Road of Masks"

Wed. November 1st 18:00 -19:00 Admission: Free

— 120 years in Chicago —

Consulate-General of Japan in Chicago