

Presented by Japan Camera Industry Institute and Media Art League
Hosted by the Consulate-General of Japan in Chicago

Edo/Tokyo - seen through its edifices

Photo Exhibition: 15th - 30th April 2019
JIC Hall, Consulate-General of Japan in Chicago Admission Free

Ministry of Home Affairs. Photographed: 1874-1880, Designed by: Tadayoshi Hayashi

Ministry of Justice (Former Residence of Honda Family/Okazaki Domain). Photographed: 1877-1880

Tokyo Chindai Garrison, Photographed: 1871-1880

First National Bank and Kaiun Bridge, Designed by Kiusuke Shimizu II. Photographed: 1878-1880

50 historical photographs from the album:
"Assorted Japanese Sightseeing Spots" taken by Italian Envoy, B. Bolanni, 1877-1881

Duration: 15th - 30th April 2019
Opening Hours: 9:15 AM - 6:00 PM
(closed on Saturdays, Sundays and national holidays)
Venue: JIC Hall, Consulate-General of Japan in Chicago
737 N. Michigan Ave. Suite 1000, Chicago, IL 60611
<http://www.chicago.us.emb-japan.go.jp>

Talk Event: Thursday, 18th April 2019 6:30 PM-
- Greeting from Consul-General Naoki Ito
- Short Lecture by Miro Ito, Co-organizer
- Short Lecture by Thomas Martin Gaubatz, Assistant Professor, Northwestern University
- Solo Ballet Performance by Shunso (Artistic Direction by Miro Ito / Music by Hagi)
- Sushi and Refreshments