

Donations for Shuri Castle Restoration

The beloved and iconic Shuri Castle (Shurijo) was destroyed by fire in the early hours of Oct. 31. This 400 year old World Heritage treasure was a symbol of Okinawan history and culture. Many Okinawan people all over the world watched in horror and disbelief as the fire raged on through the night destroying the main buildings.

At this time, the Chicago Okinawa Kenjinkai will be accepting donations large and small to help in the restoration effort. All donations will be sent to the Okinawan Government bank account which has been set up for this purpose (Donations are not tax-deductible). Your donations can be mailed to:
