

Resumption of normal reception hours

Thank you very much for using the consular services of the Consulate-General of Japan in Chicago.

In light of the situation regarding the new coronavirus in the region and the resumption of economic and social activities in the area under our jurisdiction, as well as the lifting of the state of emergency regarding the new coronavirus infection, our consular window hours will be restored to the pre-corona window hours as of May 18 (Thu.). We will continue our efforts to provide quality consular services. Thank you for your understanding.
